BENNEVILLE'S FAST RACE.

J. H. Smith's Benneville, a horse of phenomenal speed, when he runs his best race, beat Carnaro at one mile and seventy yards yesterday at Harlem, and after the race there was no end of scandalous talk by those who evidently do not know what the word speed means.

Of course Carnaro at his best is a horse of high class, but when he was in his best form he met but few, if any, horses that possessed a greater turn of speed than does Benneville when he is allowed to go out and race by himself and is not hampered by close contention.

Yesterday's race is easily explained and taking everything into consideration it was not such a false result after all. In the first place, Carnaro has very d key legs. Then again, he has had three hard races within a week and is perhaps getting cunning.

Benneville, with his flashy turn of speed, had nothing in the race to go along with him and he naturally ran like a scared deer. The fractional time shows he went the first eighth in 12, the quarter in 24, the half in 48, three-quarters in 1:14, seven eighths in 1:26 and the first mile in 1:39, and was pulled up at the end of the mile and seventy yards in 1:44, which was long record time for the distance.

Everett, who rode Carnaro, would have acted with bad judgment had he tried to keep up with Benneville at such a terrific pace. He laid away until the half mile post was reached and then set sail for the flying leader. Carnaro did not respond with his usual gameness and when the stretch was reached and Everett saw how far Benneville was in front of him he drew his whip, but Carnaro instead of getting away from it refused to try and swerved badly. Everett flogged the old horse for all he was worth through the stretch, but he could not make him extend himself, and Mistral II. beat him for the place.

After the race Owner Murphy was called into the stand. He could give no excuse for Carnaro's race and showed where he bet $500 on him. Everett certainly tried as hard as he knew how, and the fact of the matter is the early pace was too fast for Carnaro.

The two mile race created the same amount of interest that long distance races always do, and it furnished a really clever contest. Nutt, who seems to have the other boys beaten riding over a longer route than they are used to going, had the mount on Barton, who seems to be a crackerjack at the game. Horse and rider apparently understand each other. They trailed the others in this race for over a mile and a half, and when ready to go to the front did so and won pulled up. Barrier was second and Teutons, miserably ridden by Sheppard, who was coached fiercely by some one in the center field, third.

Graziella showed her heels to a fast lot in the fourth race. This filly is in rare form now but how she wins races is a mystery to everyone that sees her. She warms up stiff and lame and after winning always looks all broken up. She came back to the stand in this race yesterday on three legs and hardly looked able to stand up. Hugh Penny, who finished second to Graziella, would have beaten her had Nutt been able to keep him straight through the stretch.

A "good thing" was cut loose in Oconee in the first race. This filly was backed from 10 to 1 down to 5 to 1, and after beating the barrier won off by herself.

The second race was an easy thing for Lime Water. He was far the best and had all kinds of bad luck but eventually won in a romp.

From the sixteenth post to the wire there was more action in the sixth race than is often seen. First one horse and then another was in front, but when the wire was reached Tappan was the lucky one and got the verdict by a nose. The first eight were scarcely a length apart.

Jockey Bozeman, who was ruled off two years ago by Colonel Clark for a ride on Louis Ezell's horse, Pepper, was reinstated yesterday by Judge Hamilton.

"Rome" Respass has bought Maceo back from James Dunne. He paid Dunne the same price that Dunne gave him for the horse some two weeks ago—$1,100.

A NEW ST. LOUIS TRACK.

A deal for the lease of the St. Louis County Fair Grounds near Dwyer by the bookmakers who were arrested several months ago at Wellston will probably be completed today at Clayton. This statement is made on the authority of Sheriff Peter Kerth of Clayton, who is one of the directors in the St. Louis County Fair Association. Arrangements for the completion of the deal have been in progress for several months. In fact shortly after the Wellston bookies were fined $1,000 each by Judge Hitzel for conducting a gambling game in St. Louis county a proposition was made to them by the directors of the Fair Association suggesting that they lease the Fair Grounds and conduct a race meeting under a state license, which would render them exempt from arrest by the county authorities. Edward Fitzgerald, one of the bookmakers, was at Clayton yesterday to complete the deal but did not succeed, owing to the absence of several people.

A party of bookmakers inspected the Fair Grounds last Sunday in company of President Rauchenstein and several directors of the association. It seems that when the grounds were purchased several years ago from a Mrs. Clymer a stipulation was inserted in the contract to the effect that no betting should ever be allowed on the grounds. It is said that Mrs. Clymer is now willing to waive her objections, but her brother, Edward Von Schrader, is still averse to permitting the meeting to take place.

The bookies have made an offer of $1,500 per annum for the grounds for a certain number of years. In addition they offer to increase the length of the track to a mile, build a new grandstand and make other improvements costing in the aggregate about $25,000. The directors of the association say they see in this offer an opportunity to enhance the value of their property and also to reduce their indebtedness. It is no secret that financially the St. Louis County Fair Association is in a bad way. Their patronage for the last several years has not been sufficient for the premiums offered, and their debt has increased until it now reaches nearly $14,000. At the fair this year ribbons only will be offered as premiums. During the three days that the fair is in progress the bookies have agreed to race their horses without betting.

The meeting will not be opened until about the 1st of September, after the close of the regular ninety-day season at the St. Louis Fair Grounds. By that time the necessary improvements can be made.—St. Louis Republic.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At a meeting of the Jockey Club stewards held at Brighton Beach, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., Andrew Miller and Ralph Bayard were appointed stewards for the remainder of the Brighton meeting. W. S. Vosburgh will officiate at Saratoga.

Three running and two harness events each day will be the rule at the State and District Fair meetings in California this year.

Olinthus, son of Red Iron and Lillie Wright, has been gelded.

RACING AT LEXINGTON.

The Lexington horse show, fair and carnival, to be held during the dates of August 8 to 12, will beyond any doubt be one of the great entertainment ever produced south of the Ohio river, and in connection with their most liberal premium list for live stock, they offer several purses of $150 to $200 each for running horses. Horsemen should take advantage of this opportunity to capture some "easy money" and after the meeting freshen up their horses upon the abundant bluegrass at that place before the beginning of the fall meetings around Cincinnati. For catalogues, conditions, etc., address E. W. Shanklin, Secretary, Lexington, Ky.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Yesterday's St. Louis Republic says: "Barney Schreiber will leave for Saratoga to-night. The best of his horses were shipped to the Springs several weeks ago. Dick Williams, who has just arrived there, reports the stable in tip-top shape. Miss Marion, Jinks, Schiller, Jerry Hunt and Bunde are the best known horses in the string. Miss Marion and Jinks are thought to be two of the fastest three-year-old fillies in the country. Schiller is said to be back to his best form and he ought to give a good account of himself at Saratoga. Martin Hubbell will handle the second division of the Schreiber stable at the Fair Grounds. He has Elbe, Heine, Fine Shot and several other youngsters in charge. This is the first time Schreiber has ever tackled the eastern game."

E. Herlan, Chicago.—The race in which Brigade was a factor having been declared "no race" apparently makes that race as if it had never existed. A decision of "no race" is not provided for by any racing rule or precedent and must be considered a feature peculiar to racing over the track where the decision was rendered. Its seeming effect being to render what had been meant to be one of the regular races of a day's program null and void, it appears that it would be equity to hold that the combination was made on the other two races only.

Post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won easily up; second, third and fourth doing their best. Ocone was played for a good thing and proved one. After beating the barrier she tow-roped her field and won as she pleased. Tilly Ann did well. She came from behind in the stretch with a rush. Mont Eagle had bad luck on the far turn. It was not enough, however, to interfere with his performance. Olekma ran a cracking good race. She was off in a tangle and obliged to take the long route but finished very strongly. Milda quit badly in the stretch. So did Fannie Leland.

Winner—B. c. by Quicklime—Bracelet.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily up; the next three were doing their best. Lime Water was in a soft spot and won as he pleased. He had to be far the best to win with the ride he got. Glover got into a jam on the first turn and was repeatedly cut off down the backstretch. On the far turn the boy came to the conclusion he could not get through and pulled up and went around. When the colt got a clear path he easily went to the front. Finem Respice made up a lot of ground in the last three furlongs. He, too, had a rough journey. Maurice W. had no excuses and ran his race. The same comment applies to Defender II. Cheval d'Or will not do at a mile. He swerved badly in the stretch. Rosa L. ran a grand race after being almost left at the post.

Winner—B. g. by Simple Simon—Birdie.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won under a stout pull. The next two were driving and staggering. Barton is an extra good horse over distance of ground. He was ridden to perfection. Nutt rated him cleverly for a mile and a half and then made his move. The horse responded beautifully on call and pulled up after the race as fresh as though it had been a work-out. Barker got the place simply because Teutons was miserably ridden. The latter was the better of the two but some individual in the center field with a white cloth gave Sheppard some killing instructions. Had the boy been left alone the chances are he would have done better. Deceive ran a good race and Overella a bad one.
Barton, place, out. Barker, place, 6 to 1; show, evens. Teutons, show, out. Deceive, place, evens; show, 1 to 3.

Post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won driving and out to the last ounces; second and third driving as hard. Graziella went to the post lame, but warmed out of it and ran a grand race. She was tiring at the end, but had enough left to stall off Hugh Penny's weak rush. The latter swerved badly in the stretch. He was sharply cut off at the start and perhaps ran a better race than the winner. Newsgatherer set a terrific pace and then stopped when the pinch came. Espionage got away poorly, but showed no speed and ran a poor race. Lincraft made a good showing for about five furlongs.

Winner—B. c. by Ben Strum—Princece.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a canter; second hand ridden; third and fourth driving to the limit. Benneville had speed to loan and ran one of his best races. He set a terrific pace throughout and nothing could ever get near him. This is a very fast horse and when he is allowed to race off by himself and nothing bothers him he can beat almost any man's horse. Carnero could never get within earshot of the front. He about ran his race, although when Everett drew the whip on him at the head of the stretch he swerved. The pace set was too hot to suit Carnero, who is a slow beginner and strictly a stretch runner. Considering it was Mistral II.'s first start for some time he ran a fine race. Tab Lillian Reed, she is ready and forced Carnero out for third place. Kenmore Queen showed speed for about three-quarters. Benneville, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Mistral II., place, 6 to 1; show, 6 to 5; Carnero, show, out.

Time, 12½, 23½, 36½, 48½, 1:01½, 1:14½.
Winner—Br. g. by Powhattan—Finical.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first eight were all in a heap and driving to the limit. It was anyone's race until the wire was reached. Tappan came from far back with a terrific rush and just got up in time. Free Hand weakened badly in the last few strides. So did Norma Taylor, who took the short route and was well ridden. George H. Ketcham, at one time in the last sixteenth, seemed to be winning. The general closing up at the end was very sharp and the feature of the race.
Scratched—(9157) White Ivy, 103; 13065 Blue Lick, 108; 13164 Owyhee, 108; 13569 Banbury, 84; (13556) Maegie Davis, 103; 13556 Rosa Clay, 103; 13453 Ed Wagner, 84; 13385 Duty, 103; 13010 Diggs 116; 13404 Barrack, 84; 13457 Florizar, 84; 13498 Kamsin, 116; 13551 Milton, 81.
Overweights—Rosavannah, 2 pounds.
Tappan, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Cheesemite, place, 40 to 1; show, 15 to 1. Free Hand, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h. by Friar's Balsam—Mavourneen.
Post 25 minutes. Start fair. Won easily up. It was an easy thing for Voter and the price was liberal. Toluca closed very fast in the last furlong. Sanders is not up to his early spring form. Helobias was overweighted. Rideau had a lot of early speed, but quit in the stretch. Cormorant showed no speed.
Scratched—13323 Sir Christopher, 118; 13038 Ben Hadad, 116; 11954 High Degree, 104; (13482) Elmo, 94.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler) harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.
